6 In Ohio Family Traveling West In Old Wagon

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — An Ohio family of six, bound for the Oregon country in a covered wagon, may soon be on the trail again after a brief stopover in Cheyenne.

The Russell Olivers loaded their four children, aged 2 to 7, and belongings into a horse-drawn covered wagon last April 15 in Norwalk, Ohio and began moving westward, just as pioneers did more than 100 years ago.

Oliver, 29, said such a trip is often a topic of discussion in Ohio. "A lot of people talk about it, but don't do it," he said.

The 14-foot covered wagon, drawn by two large horses named "Doc" and "Doll," averages between 20 to 25 miles a day, but Oliver said he expects the average to drop to about 15 miles a day through the Rocky Mountains.

Dog days are the period between July and September linked to Sirius, the dog star; popularly they are the sultry end of summer.

Tornado Hits East Colorado

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A tornado drilled straw into utility poles in Eastern Colorado as more than 1 inch of hail slapped Montana in overnight storms.

No injuries were reported in the tornado that touched down 2 1/2 miles northeast of Hugo, Lincoln County authorities reported the twister embedded pieces of straw in the utility poles as it downed five of them, cutting off power for about an hour.

A heavy thunderstorm pelted Helena, Mont., with 1 inch of hail as more than 1 inch of rain fell in a six-hour span in Redwood Falls, Minn., Burwell, Neb., and Clovis, N.M.

Storms also lashed in many areas from the northern Rockies to the upper Mississippi Valley and in some sections of New England.

The rest of the nation had clear skies as ocean air kept West Coast and New England temperatures in the 50s. Readings in the 90s were reported in many parts of the Southwest.

Early morning temperatures varied from 17 at Watertown, N.Y., to 96 at Needles, Calif.

County Repairs Damaged Bridge

Repair of the Old Springfield Road bridge near U. S. 22, damaged by a tractor-trailer truck Thursday, will require much of the time of the county road crew this week, according to Engineer Charles P. Wagner.

Wagner said the empty cattle hauler tore off the guardrail along the bridge and damaged one of the concrete sections. Repair of the bridge will cost about $3,000, he estimated.

County crews also will be working on bridges on Burnett - Perrill Road and on Hidy Road. The Hidy Road bridge was opened last week, but the permanent guardrail has not arrived for installation.

Sealing of roads in Madison Township will continue this week.

The city street department, under the direction of Howard Annon, will be repairing a storm sewer behind River Road and cleaning catch basins during the week.

Bids on contracts for repaving of Court and North streets will be opened by the State Department of Highways Tuesday.

The state crews will be mowing weeds, berming and working on a ditch near Jeffersonville this week, according to Superintendent Gene McLean.

Cincy Bell Raises Rates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio announced today that it has approved a compromise request by Cincinnati Bell for a $9.7 million yearly rate increase.

The hike will become effective July 16 and will mean one-party residential rates will go up to $6.90 a month. Business rates for one-party lines will be $19 a month.

Cincinnati Bell, which serves parts of southwestern Ohio area, had originally asked for a $15.4 million annual rate boost but agreed to the approved figure after negotiations with the Public Utilities Commission of Cincinnati.

Cincinnati Bell's yearly rate of return will be $6.99 million. It has been $4.85 million. Cincinnati City Manager Richard Krabach said that Cincinnati Bell service rates had not been raised since 1953.

Congress Moves To Extend GI Home Loan Guarantees

WASHINGTON (AP) — The deadline for World War II GIs to apply for Veterans Administration home loan guarantees expires July 25 but Congress is moving to save and perhaps expand the program.

Under bills being considered, Congress may reopen the program to millions who passed it up by knocking out the eligibility deadline for veterans of World War II as well as GIs who served in Korea, the post-Korea era and Vietnam.

Several such bills have been introduced and the Senate has held hearings on one sponsored by Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., and backed by the White House.

The Senate bill, as it seems to be shaping up, would knock out all deadlines—present and future—on GI home loans. Several bills are in the House Veterans Affairs Committee, which will hold hearings this week, including one by Chairman Olin E. Teague, D-Tex., to knock out the deadline only for those now still eligible.

At present about 1.4 million World War II veterans remain eligible. Eligibility has expired already for many others who did not use the GI bill to buy homes. About 5.5 million World War II veterans used the benefit.

Eligible veterans of World War II, Korea, post-Korea service and Vietnam may get home loans from commercial lenders guaranteed up to $12,500, but there's no limit on how big the loan may be as there once was. The VA also makes direct loans in some areas where commercial loan money is scarce.

Interest may not be over 8 1/2 per cent, the same limit as FHA, but the government has authority to raise this to match the money market. This opened authority expires in October but a housing bill to be considered in Senate-House conference this week would extend the authority to October 1971.

Helmet Law Protested By Cyclists

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "It's my head and I'll treat it like I want," said one of the 200 motorcyclists who held a rally on the statehouse grounds Sunday to protest a state law requiring all riders to wear helmets.

The cyclists contend the law is unconstitutional and are circulating petitions asking the Ohio General Assembly to repeal it.

"We want the General Assembly to give us back our constitutional right of freedom of choice," said Dave Davis, secretary of the Columbus Soul Seekers motorcycle club, one of the sponsors of the rally.

In addition to asserting the law is unconstitutional cyclists said the helmets provide no protection at speeds upwards of 19 miles per hour and are hot and uncomfortable.

"I've been riding since 1952," said Clifford Boling of Columbus, "I've flipped some big bikes but I've never hurt my head."

About 150 motorcyclists gathered on the statehouse lawn while 50 others rode around the block carrying banners and American flags.

Speakers called for more rallies at the capitol and promised to help organize motorcycle riders into a voting bloc in an effort to repeal the law.

Bridge Blaze Halts Rail Traffic

NEW YORK (AP) — Service on the three divisions of the Penn Central Railroad, carrying thousands of Manhattan-bound commuters, was shut down for two hours this morning when a railroad bridge connecting Manhattan and the Bronx caught fire.

The railroad reported that inbound trains started running again at 10:17 a.m. after the Fire Department quelled a smoldering blaze on the ties of two sets of inbound tracks. The bridge spans the Harlem River.

Power to all four tracks on the bridge was cut off while the fire was fought, so that no trains were moving into or out of Grand Central Terminal in Manhattan.

Milford Resident Dies Of Injuries

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 28-year-old man from nearby Milford died at Our Lady of Mercy Hospital today from injuries suffered in a collision on Thursday which claimed the life of his wife and two children.

He was Ronald Behmyer who was riding in a car that swerved left of center on U.S. 50 near suburban Mariemont and was struck broadside by another vehicle.

Under current law, eligibility for all veterans normally expires 10 years after discharge from active duty plus an extra one year for each three months of active duty.

Heyerdahl And Crew End Ocean Trip In Paper Boat

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados (AP) — After a two-month transatlantic crossing that he says proves the Egyptians could have discovered America 4,000 years ago, Thor Heyerdahl and his seven international crewmen planned to haul their waterlogged papyrus boat Ra II out of Bridgetown's harbor today prior to shipping it back to Europe.

The 55-year-old Norwegian explorer and his crew spent their first night ashore Sunday after completing their 3,200-mile crossing that began May 17 in Safi, Morocco.

Claiming that the successful completion of his epic journey proved the ancient Egyptians could have crossed the Atlantic, Heyerdahl declared as he stepped ashore late Sunday afternoon: "This is a great, great, great moment. We have definitely proved that papyrus is seaworthy."

Only the Ra's pointed prow and stern sections were above water, and the government tug Culeper towed it the last eight miles into harbor. But officials said the Ra could have made

The Norwegian skipper's crewmen were from Egypt, Mexico, the Soviet Union, the United States, Italy, Japan and Morocco, and they sailed under the blue and white United Nations flag.

Prime Minister Errol Barrow led welcoming officials, declaring: "This has established that Barbados was the first landing place for man in the Western world."

Cash Bonuses Considered To Lure Vets Into Guard

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon is considering special cash bonuses to lure young military veterans into the National Guard and the reserves.

Officials declined to say how big such bonuses might be, but one authority said "they'd be enough for a young fella to make a down payment on a car."

Some key authorities believe bonuses, along with other benefit inducements, may be necessary to keep the guard and reserve at full strength as draft calls decline.

Officials also view this approach—never before tried with the reserves—as a way to build up the combat readiness of the backup forces by attracting men with service experience.

If approved, the bonuses would be offered only to what are called "prior service personnel" for both enlistment and re-enlistment in the guard or reserve.

Legislation would be required to authorize such payments. Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has stressed his belief that the nation's nearly one million man guard-reserve structure will become increasingly important in the coming years as the size of U.S. regular forces is cut.

The biggest problem facing the Pentagon in maintaining the strength of the backup forces centers in the Army National Guard and Army reserve.

These elements, totaling some 660,000 men, are filled to a substantial extent now with young men who chose to duck the draft by spending six to 10 months on active duty and the balance of six years in the guard or reserve.

As the draft takes fewer young men, the incentive to sign up in the guard and reserve is diminishing, and a top National Guard official said recently "the days of waiting lists and long backlogs of men waiting to enter the guard appear to be coming to an end."

Laird and his manpower aides face a dilemma on how to strengthen the National Guard and reserve without spending more money. The programs now cost about $2.5 billion a year.

Expect Negro To Become Dayton Mayor

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The withdrawal of his only competitor has cleared the way for James H. McGee, 51, to become Dayton's first Negro mayor.

Formal appointment of McGee, an attorney, to the post is expected at a City Commission meeting Wednesday morning.

Both McGee and Mike Liskany, a local labor leader who announced Saturday he was withdrawing from contention, are commission members.

Under the city charter, the commission must appoint a successor to Mayor Dave Hall, who resigned May 13 because of ill health. Hall's unexpired term runs through Dec. 31, 1973.

Dayton, a city of 262,000 with a 30 per cent black population, has a city manager form of government with the mayor and commissioners elected at large. Elections are nonpartisan.

If McGee is appointed, Dayton will become the second major Ohio city with a Negro mayor. Cleveland Mayor Carl Stokes is in his second term.

Robert Ferguson, 632 S. Main St., has returned home from Mount Carmel Hospital, Columbus, where he has been a medical patient.

Christopher Herron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herron, 170 Carolyn Rd., returned home Sunday from Children's Hospital, Columbus, after major surgery. He will be in a body cast for several weeks.

Cycle Accident Injures Man, 34

A motorcycle accident on a farm near Bowersville Saturday sent a 34-year-old man to Fayette Memorial Hospital with a severe mouth laceration, abrasions and bruises.

Fayette County sheriff's deputies said William E. Smith, of Bowersville, was brought to the hospital here by his wife after being injured at 1:30 p.m.

According to Smith, he was riding his cycle in a field when the wheel struck a hole. The impact threw him against the handlebars and then to the ground.

Smith was treated and released, sheriff's deputies said.

Chet Huntley Likes LBJ, Blasts Nixon

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC television newscaster Chet Huntley, reminiscing in a Life magazine interview, says that of the presidents he was around he liked Lyndon B. Johnson best.

"He was kind to me," he said. "As insufferable as he could be, he was a gracious and funny man at ease. I never tried to argue with him. I just kept filing his glass with Scotch and we talked about breeding Herefords."

Huntley, who will retire Aug. 1 after 14 years with partner David Brinkley, also commented on President Nixon.

"I've been with Nixon socially; I've traveled with him in his private plane; I've seen him under many conditions. The shallowness of the man overwhelms me; the fact that he is President frightens me."

Of the vice president he said: "Spiro Agnew is appealing to the most base of elements. Network coverage 'almost created him, for God's sake,' Huntley said. 'I resent being lumped in with his Eastern Establishment effete intellectuals.'"

He also offered these views: "Covering the astronauts was an exercise in boredom. The networks all got trapped. Most astronauts are dull as hell, nice guy, mechanics. The only ones who had a mind of their own didn't last long."

"It deeply concerns me that 55 per cent of the American people are getting most of their news from TV. These are people who, for the most part, are being confronted with news for the first time. And these are the people who form the Agnew clique."

Want Agnew As Speaker

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes, a friend and occasional golf partner of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, plans to appeal personally to Agnew to speak at the Midwest Governors Conference here next week.

The governors of 15 states will meet at the Neil House Hotel next Sunday through Wednesday.

Agnew has been invited to address a dinner Tuesday, July 21 but has not yet accepted. He reportedly is trying to resolve a conflict in engagements in order to attend.

Rhodes will host the conference and Gov. Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri will serve as chairman.

Panel discussions will be headed by Gov. Louis B. Nunn of Kentucky, Gov. Robert D. Ray of Iowa, Gov. Robert Docking of Kansas, Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann of Nebraska and Gov. Edgar D. Whitcomb of Indiana.

Stock List Still Rising

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rally moved into its fourth day with prices continuing to rise. Trading was slow. Analysts said the low turnover could indicate the recent rally was losing some of its support.

At noon the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks closed up 5.06 at 705.16. Since last Wednesday the Dow has gone up more than 35 points.

Analysts said the sluggish activity indicated investors were holding back in the absence of any encouraging news.

Brokers said the rally had been based on investor confidence that the current business and market slump was over, but so far there have been no definite indications that this is the case, they added.

Investors are hopeful that interest rates may be peaking and that credit may get easier, these brokers said.

Steels, motors, airlines, and rails were mixed. All other categories were up.

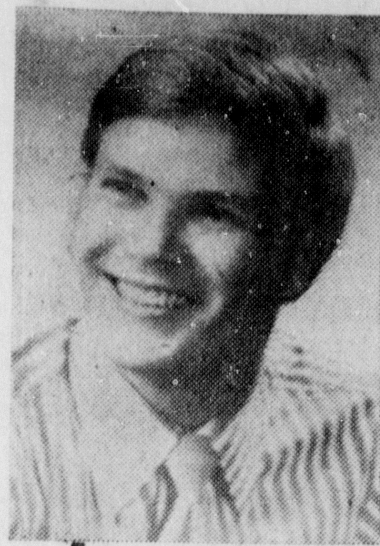

At noon the Associated Press 60-stock index was up 1.1 at 235.7, with industrials up 2.5, rails up 0.6, and utilities off 0.2.

Cross-Bearing Group Spreads Word Of Jesus

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

NEW YORK (AP) — Some onlookers simply stare, mildly amused or puzzled. Others make wisecracks. "More looks!" Still others trail along briefly, interested, approving, asking questions. And from city to city, policemen sigh and wave the strange procession along.

"We're Jesus people," says the Rev. Arthur Blessitt, cross-country bearer of a heavy, wooden cross, big enough to crucify a man on.

Twice, he has had his walking boots resoled after wearing holes in them on his 3,500-mile trek from Los Angeles to Washington, D. C., toting the 105-pound Christian symbol, made of oil-treated, old 4-by-4's.

"We found them in a junkyard," he says.

The Rev. Mr. Blessitt, 29, sunburned, sandy-haired and clad in T-shirt and faded denim, came through New York City recently, and headed south, tugging along his curious cargo to "call this nation back to God and real brotherhood."

He's been on the road since Christmas, dispensing his message along the way. He expects to reach Washington July 18.

"As we've walked along the highways across this country, from city to city, at every step, we've seen hate and violence and bitterness," he says. "But we've also seen a tremendous spiritual birth taking place."

"It's beginning. It's happening everywhere, especially among young people, a real spiritual awakening. We've got to change. We're either going to have a bath of blood or a bath of love within the next year."

"And I believe that within the hearts of people in America this year, the greatest awakening spiritually that has happened in over 100 years is going to take place."

The Rev. Mr. Blessitt, a Mississippi-reared Southern Baptist known as the "minister of Sunset Strip" in Hollywood, runs a "gospel night club" there called "His Place," ministering to drug addicts, street gangs, hippies, prostitutes, motorcycle riders, runaways and topless dancers.

It serves coffee, soft drinks—and "soul" talk.

"You don't have to drop out to get high," he says. "All you have to do is pray, and you'll go all the way to heaven. You don't have to load up on pills—you can load up on love. Little books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. The best way to turn off drugs is to turn on with Jesus and stay loaded 24 hours a day."

Four of his converts to faith, Jim McPheeters, 22, Seattle, Wash., once on drugs; P. J. Peterson, 29, Phoenix, Ariz., a one-time alcoholic night club entertainer; Jesse Wise, 20, a former black militant, and Ramsey Gilchrist, 22, Baton Rouge, La., once a dropout agitator, are with the Rev. Mr. Blessitt on his pilgrimage.

In pairs, they take turns in two-hour shifts at carrying the 10-foot cross, each shouldering an end of the 4-foot crossbeam. The base of the upright roll: on two wheels, attached to keep the wood from being worn away by dragging.

They cover about three miles an hour, spending nights in two campers pulled from stop to stop by aging cars driven by the minister's wife, Sherry and one of the men.

The Rev. Mr. Blessitt has led several evangelizing rallies at waypoints, and he and his crew spread the word to bystanders en route.

"Jesus loves you," they call out, and often stop for brief conversations. They plaster little stickers on wayside posts, walls, car windows and people's clothes, saying, "Real peace is Jesus," "Smile—God loves you," and "Let's all get together."

"We don't keep books, but at least one person has been saved every mile of the walk," The Rev. Mr. Blessitt said, adding that hundreds of others committed themselves to Christ at rallies, including 500 in Pittsburgh and 456 at a meeting of 12,000 in Louisville.

"Thousands of cars have stopped as we walked along the highways and people get out weeping and say, 'Thank God, somebody is doing something,'" he related. "They offer to help carry the cross and say 'It's beautiful.'"

But there also have been the jeers, taunts and sometimes threats, such as: the filling station attendant in Birdseye Ind., who threatened to burn the cross, saying, "This gasoline says that cross won't make it to Washington."

"We gave him some stickers and started talking to him about getting his heart right," the Rev. Mr. Blessitt says. "He was bamboozled. God struck him down and before we left he was on his knees, giving his heart to the Lord."

The Rev. Mr. Blessitt's group expects to arrive in Washington July 18 for a "march for Christ" from the Washington Monument to the Capitol, and for participation in a day of prayer and fasting urged by the Southern Baptist convention there and elsewhere from noon July 13 to noon July 19.

Says the Rev. Mr. Blessitt: "We've got to start living together, working together and loving together and put this country back together."

The Pounding Of Trucks

The trucking industry's persistent efforts to win federal approval of larger and yet larger behemoths on the road is brought to mind by official reports that heavy traffic is cracking up our interstate highways. Investigators for the General Accounting Office conclude that hundreds of millions of dollars will be required to resurface highways cracked by the pounding they receive.

Fayette County is seeing some of this truck damage, particularly on such secondary highways as Rt. 729 which is frequently used as a cutoff by heavy vehicles. Interstate 71 doesn't yet show an appreciable damage, Gene McLean, local superintendent for the Ohio Department of Highways, says.

ask why trucks should be singled out for mention in connection with the growing problem. It appears that there is excellent reason for this — that these heavily loaded vehicles are the biggest villain of the piece. The man in charge of the GAO investigation, Bernard Sacks, has been quoted to this effect: "The crucial factor is truck traffic. Most engineers have told us if there were no trucks involved, the highways would last forever."

The sums of money involved, and potentially to be involved, in necessary repair work are enormous. Some 2,800 miles of interstate highways already have been resurfaced at a cost of about 200 million dollars. The GAO believes — and there seems no valid reason to doubt it — that this is only the beginning; it is thought that the total outlay may be vastly greater. It appears that misjudgment of various factors led to improper design of interstate highway many years ago. The GAO reports officials as pointing the finger at lack of due consideration to underlying soil conditions, bad weather and truck weights. Suitable attention can be paid to weather and soil conditions in future planning. Meanwhile, the efforts of the trucking industry to get even heavier trucks approved should be regarded with a skeptical eye. Such vehicles are a menace to ordinary highway travel. There is now additional reason to think that they also do more than their share of damage to the highways.

Solutions Offered To Divorce Problem

DEAR ABBY: Apropos of Helen who is 25, single, Roman Catholic and "hopelessly in love" with a Lutheran, 35, who is divorced with two children: Helen says she will not give up her religion to marry him, she's broken up with him a dozen times but they always get back together again. She's begged him to leave her alone, but instead the "Foxy Romeo" moved into her apartment building, so now they are seeing more of each other than every!

I suspect it's Helen who doesn't want to get married. Many girls "fall in love" only with men they can't marry. (Either the man is married, or divorced, or he is a priest.) My sympathies are with Foxy Romeo. If he's looking for a wife and mother for his two kids, he'd better forget Helen. She wants a boyfriend—not a husband. No girl "breaks up" and makes up a dozen times unless she enjoys having the man around.

If you want to call Helen's bluff, advise her to take her Romeo to a priest (or contact me). Due to legal technicalities, some divorced persons can remarry. It's a longshot but it's worth a try. If it turns out that Helen can marry her Romeo, I will wager that instead of rushing into his arms, she will move to another apartment building to avoid him.

Very truly yours,
Rev. Anthony P. Vaz
St. Luke's Rectory,
Westport, Conn.

DEAR REVEREND VA.: I appreciate your offer to help Helen. And heaven help YOU with the mail you are likely to receive after this.

DEAR ABBY: I was once in Helen's shoes. A more devout Roman Catholic would have been hard to find. Then I fell in love with a beautiful Protestant, the son of a minister, yet I was torn between him and my church.

Then it occurred to me that my church is changing so rapidly. What happened to the "No-Meat-On-Friday" church? How about St. Christopher who is no longer a saint? And nuns who, with the blessings of the church, wear mini skirts and boots? And the pressure to permit priests to marry could conceivably win out in time. Now I'm wondering what Helen think if she gives up the man she loves to some other woman, and the church decides a result of faulty birth development. Its real cause is as yet unknown. Small tumors are found in certain nerves of the body and are responsible for many of the symptoms that occur.

The reason that the literature, both medical and for the lay public, is sparse, is that so little is known about this disorder. At the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland, and at the Rockefeller University in New York City, scientific study is constantly in progress to learn more about the cause and the control of Von Recklinghausen's disease. Your own physician is in the best position to direct you in finding the new hope that may lie in some of the modern scientific studies.

Can a laxative taken for more than thirty years do any permanent damage to the bowels?

M. L. W. Va.
Dear Mr. G.: Thirty years is a long time and if you have not been adversely affected by it now, I doubt if you should worry. You might ask your doctor why you need this laxative and try to break the habit.

SPEAKING OF YOUR HEALTH: Good dental care is particularly important during pregnancy.

Some Invitations To Reject

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — We live in the heyday of the "yes man." The docile underling who rubberstamps everything with his approval, whether he understands it or not, is a laughing-stock caricature in the business world.

But actually the "yes man" isn't confined to the realm of the office. He is ubiquitous. He is in us all.

Either because of laziness or spinelessness, or both most of us spend most of our days acceding to situations or suggestions that add nothing to our pleasure and may threaten our safety.

We let ourselves be talked into eating things we don't really like, meeting people we don't want to meet, going to places we have no real desire to see, buying things we don't need, and wasting our lovely time on earth chasing phantoms we wouldn't know what to do with if we caught them.

One test of maturity as well as wisdom is the ability to say not at the right time even at the risk of seeming a bit unpleasant. Sometimes you have to be positive by taking a negative attitude.

When should one reject? Well, here are a few invitations which, if accepted, are unlikely to increase one's peace of mind or well-being:

"You climb up and fix it. I'll hold the ladder."
"You don't want to be the only spoil-sport in the crowd do you?"
"Oh, go ahead and dive in. The water is probably at least 10-feet deep here."
"Well, try it just once. For Pete's sake, it isn't going to kill you."
"You must be tired of hearing about little old me. Tell me about yourself."
"Sit here on the sofa by me. Is that light shining in your eyes? I'll turn it off. Now, isn't this more cozy?"
"Let me give you some of my pills. They do wonders for me."
"Can I ask your advice about a personal matter?"
"In my opinion, it's a perfect fit. Why don't you wear it home and bring it back if your wife doesn't like it?"
"Why don't you come up for a nightcap? I'm not expecting my husband back until tomorrow night."
"A soldier could serve for a hundred years and never get another crack at a mission like this one. Any volunteers?"
"I've got a million things to do today, so I can only stay for a minute, Marge. Mind if I kick off my shoes?"
"Would you like to do an old

Discontent As The Measure Of Achieved Progress

THESE DAYS....

By John Chamberlain

What does it take to be loved? Leonard Garment, President Nixon's liaison with civil rights groups, and Pat Moynihan, who does the long-term thinking or urban affairs for the Administration, have legitimate cause for wonder these days as Bishop Stephen Spottswood, chairman of the board of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, refuses to retract his contention that the Nixon government is anti-Negro.

The truth is that Bishop Spottswood is wrong, entirely wrong, but neither Garment nor Moynihan, who hope to stop the unfruitful business of mutual recrimination, desires to make an issue of it. Garment did reply to the NAACP in a long telegram that listed some of the things the government is trying to do for the blacks. Aside from complaining that Spottswood had been unfair, however, the Garment telegram was notable for its effort to defuse the rhetoric.

Pat Moynihan, in a paper being circulated for White House administrative staff consumption, goes Garment one better in forbearance, making a virtue of the fact that the blacks in the U. S. have reached that stage of development in which the expression of discontent seems both logical and natural.

Moynihan believes that discontent is the sparkplug of creativity, and it would be unfortunate if it were totally repressed. People don't get openly angry until they feel they are strong enough and prosperous enough to do something about improving their status in a quantum jump.

AS MOYNIHAN sees it, once a national goal has been formulated, it becomes a standard by which the present is judged, not the future. Objectives, once established, "institutionalize the creation of discontent. The setting of future goals, no matter how distant, drains legitimacy from present conditions." This is "part of the price of a society pays when it consciously seeks to change things for the better."

So the Nixon government gets the reputation for being anti-Negro because it hasn't, in an inflationary period that was not of its own making, been able to eradicate the ghetto in a matter of months.

Even so, the number of people living in poverty, blacks no less than whites, has declined by 9 per cent in the past couple of years. If our present rate of upgrading continues, poverty will disappear within the decade even without family assistance plans. The blacks will ride the upward movement.

George Wallace may continue to fulminate, but a May, 1970 Gallup Poll proves that white attitudes in the South toward integration have changed radically since 1963. During the Kennedy administration 6 out of 10 Southern white parents said they would object to sending their children to schools where blacks were enrolled. By 1970 the proportion had changed to one parent in 6 in a shift that Gallup has described as "one of the most dramatic in the history of ... polling."

MEANWHILE the election of more Negro mayors, city councilmen, state legislators and congressmen is paralleled by a movement of capable blacks into policy-making positions in the Nixon government.

Simply because the far-out Negro militant organizations are continually calling on James Farmer to resign from his post in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the public gets the idea that he is the only black of any importance in the Nixon entourage.

There are at least 13 competent Negroes in policy-making Administration slots. Ticking the other 12 off, they are T. M. Alexander, assistant commissioner of FHA mortgages; Bob Brown, an assistant to the President; William Brown, chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission; Arthur Fletcher, assistant secretary for Wage and Labor Standards; Stanley Herbert, general counsel for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission; former Yale football captain Levi Jackson, chairman of the National Selective Service Appeals Board; Samuel Jackson, assistant secretary for Metropolitan Housing Development; James Johnson, vice chairman of the Civil Service Commission; Judge Samuel Pierce, general counsel for the Treasury; Frank Kent, director of the Office of Civil Rights; Elizabeth Kooz of the Department of Labor Women's Bureau, and Assistant Postmaster General Ronald Lee.

The policy-making blacks are only the tip of the iceberg. There is a broad forward movement in black participation in administrative government, just as there is a broad movement of blacks out of the poverty class. Nixon has said he wants to be judged by deeds, not words. The NAACP would do better if it curbed the rhetoric and sought to cooperate with the baker's dozen of policy-making blacks who are quite capable of representing black needs at the seat of government.

Guide To Good Health

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

IS THERE any medical reason why so many children seem to be born in the middle of the night? I have had four and each was born with the same frenzied rush at four in the morning. With my fifth on the way I hope he or she can see daylight first.

Dear Mrs. N.: Although I don't know the exact statistics, I would venture to say that more children are born during the day than during the night. I am certain that there is no significant reason why your night visitors arrive amidst the frenzy you speak of. After a woman has had more than one or two children, the ease of giving birth increases and the rapidity with which the final stages of labor occur tends to increase the anxiety about getting to the hospital on time.

There now is a tendency for doctors and obstetricians to control the actual time of delivery so that they, too, need not be deprived of a good wholesome night's rest. Dr. Melvin Stone, an obstetrical specialist in New York City said in a personal note to me: "We now are able to safely control the time of birth in many selected cases. This relieves the patient of many long hours in labor and has the added advantage of a doctor who is rested and functioning at his maximum capacity.

This has all been made possible by the careful use of a hormone from the pituitary gland in the brain with which a doctor can begin active labor almost at will. The hormone used to induce labor stimulates the muscles of the uterus or womb and causes them to contract to advance the birth process. There are many advantages to use of this drug when it is employed in carefully chosen cases. I hope the day is a lovely one when your welcome fifth first sees the light of day.

Our two-year old baby has a rare condition, Von Recklinghausen's disease. We can't find any encouraging information about the disease and wonder if we can be directed to a source?

Round About The County--People, Places, And Things

By B. E. KELLEY

Down through the years, starting when few doctors were available the pioneers prepared their own medicines obtaining some of the formulas from the Indians.

Up until a comparatively few years ago "Indian medicines" were widely advertised and much used by those who found themselves remote from doctors.

Many will recall the "Indian medicine shows" which periodically visited this community, giving brief performances and selling "Lenine Indian herb medicine" guaranteed to cure anything that ailed you.

Usually the Indian medicine shows had a real Indian or two with them, and in his broken English he told of the wonders of the panaceas being dispensed by the fellow for whom he worked for a small pittance.

"Kickapoo Indian Medicine," purporting to come from the Kickapoo Indians of Kansas, was one of the concoctions heralded as a cure for all ailments to which the average human being was subjected.

Usually these "Medicine men" were garbed in Indian regalia with warrior bonnets, and their spiels usually were so persuasive that there was a brick demand for the stuff they were selling.

Not only was the public taken in by some of the Indian mystic herb concoctions, but there were many other types of so-called "cure alls" peddled by "Cheap Johns" from their street corner stands; from house to house, or by alluring advertisements which caused the dollars to roll in. For a mixture which cost only a few cents to produce in quantity often sold for a dollar.

Once, many years ago, I saw a street hawker selling an "elixir of life" for men and recognized him as a man who formerly was with a stock company at the old Empire Theater, on the corner of Court and Hinde streets, where a Sohio station now stands.

When he had sold out we renewed acquaintance, and he confided in me that his "medicine," bottle and all, cost him less than 10 cents, and he was selling it at $1.00 a bottle. "I'm making $25 to $50 a day, and it is better than the show business at that much a week," he said.

A wide range of names was carried on the labels, and in those days everything was a sure cure — it said so right on the bottle. But later many of the worthless concoctions were ruled out under federal laws which prohibited cure statements.

Large numbers of German planes were raiding England, and many had been shot down.

Britain had battered the French fleet, or that part which resisted and had taken over most of the ships to prevent them falling into German hands.

McCoy-Schieber Wedding In Grace Methodist Church

Baskets of white gladioli and white daisies with white satin bows graced the altar of Grace United Methodist Church for the marriage of Miss Linda Kay McCoy and Mr. Ronald Terry Schieber. Candelabra trimmed with white satin bows flanked the altar and steps. Large baskets of white and coral gladioli with majestic daisies were on both sides of the steps leading to the altar with palms trimming the altar steps. The family pews were marked with coral gladioli and white baby's breath and foliage with white bows.

The Rev. John W. Armentrout officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. Mrs. Gene Hughes, organist, and Miss Cheryl White, of Grove City, vocalist, presented a prelude of wedding selections.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. McCoy, Ohio 41-N, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schieber, of Columbus.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length formal A-line gown with fitted bodice, sculptured neckline and full tucked bishop sleeves. Venice lace in star and daisy appliques trimmed the gown and hemline and the removable chapel-length train. Her headpiece was an open camelot organza bonnet appliqued with Venice lace and aurora crystal beads and pearls, holding a cathedral length veil of imported English silk illusion. She carried a cascade of miniature white carnations and roses centered with a corsage of white roses and enhanced with fern.

Carol Sue McCoy, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an apricot organza over taffeta redingote-style gown with full flowing back. Multi-colored flower braid trimmed the cuffs of the long sleeves and formed a band around the empire waistline. Long velvet streamers extended to the hemline. She wore a band of daisies and apricot baby's breath in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies highlighted with apricot baby's breath over the top.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Judith Ann McCoy and Sandra

Lee McCoy, sisters of the bride, Miss Connie Fletcher, of Sylvania, sorority sister of the bride, and Miss Jane Thomas, of Camp Hill, Pa., another sorority sister, wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor.

David A. Schieber, of Mansfield, was best man for his brother. Seating the guests were James A. Hammerschmidt, of Moorestown, N. J., Douglas Regula, of Sulphur Springs, Bob Giele, of Dayton, and Jack Butler, of Bucyrus.

Mrs. McCoy chose a peach silk shantung fitted dress and coat ensemble for her daughter's wedding. The empire style dress was designed with a crocheted lace overlay on the bodice and lace cap sleeves. Her accessories included matching shoes, beaded purse and white gloves and she wore a corsage of yellow cymbidium orchids with peach centers.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pastel yellow sleeveless silk shantung dress trimmed with lace and a matching long sleeved lace coat. She wore matching accessories and her corsage was of mint green cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. A. C. Yaussy and Mrs. W. C. Bush, grandmothers of the couple, wore corsages of white cymbidium orchids with pink centers.

For the reception held in the Washington Country Club, the bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake encircled and crowned with greenery and miniature apricot sweetheart roses. Sterling silver three-branch candelabras were on both sides of the cake. The mantel behind the bridal table was decorated with foliage and an arrangement of white and coral gladioli and miniature wedding bells. Large baskets of white and coral gladioli with yellow majestic daisies were at the ends of the bridal table.

Hors d'oeuvres and open-faced sandwiches were served from the punch table. After the cake was served and the bridal toast proposed the guests danced to the music of Wayne Sprouse and his band from Wilmington. At intermission a delicious buffet was served.

Hostesses for the reception were Miss Rita Kelly and Miss Marian Milroy, both of Columbus, Mrs. W. R. Lowry, of Worthington and Miss Amy Babey, of Cincinnati, all sorority sisters of the bride. They wore corsages of white daisies and apricot baby's breath.

When the couple left for their wedding trip to Virginia Beach, the bride was wearing an aqua silk shantung dress and coat ensemble complimented with white accessories and a corsage of white bridal roses from her wedding bouquet. Upon their return they will live at 6547 Cornwell Common in Sylvania.

Mrs. Schieber, a graduate of Miami Trace High School and Ohio State University with a degree in education, is a member of Chi Omega Sorority. She will teach school this fall. Her husband, a graduate of Colonel Crawford High School, Bucyrus, and OSU with a bachelor of science degree in administrative sciences, is now in the district sales representative program for the Shell Oil Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schieber entertained the bridal party at a rehearsal dinner in Lafayette Inn Friday evening. An arrangement of apricot and white summer flowers centered the guest table.

President Hayes' Memorial Among Fremont Attractions

EDITOR'S NOTE: One of a series of short tours of Ohio travel attractions prepared by The Fayette County Automobile Club

Rutherford B. Hayes was the second of seven native sons of Ohio to serve as president of the United States, and his meticulously maintained estate at Fremont is the focal point of a varied tour of the north central area near Lake Erie.

The 25 acres known as Spiegel Grove includes the Hayes home, still a private family residence, a memorial building containing possessions and mementos of the 19th president, a library with more than a million manuscript and 80,000 volumes, and a monument marking the grave of both Hayes and his wife.

The entrances to the estate

Nearby is the Milan Historical Museum which has collections of dolls, glass, china and guns. Open 10 to 5 Tuesday through Sunday. Contributions accepted.

Melons are a specialty of the Milan area and between Sept. 4 and 7 the village is turned over to the Melon Festival, which features parades, entertainment, contests and, this year, selection of the Ohio Festivals queen.

Record-Herald Readers: This INTRODUCTORY OFFER brings you $600.00-A-MONTH TAX-FREE CASH WHENEVER YOU GO TO THE HOSPITAL

-Only 25¢ covers your entire family for the first month

- ★ Pays you cash at the rate of $600.00 a month for each hospital stay... even for life, if necessary.
- ★ Pays in addition to any other companies' coverage you have—including Medicare.

- ★ Pays all cash direct to you (not to doctor or hospital).
- ★ Guaranteed Renewable for Life. National Home guarantees never to cancel your protection no matter how old you become or how many claims you have.

No salesman will call—No medical examination required—No age limit

ACT NOW—YOUR ENROLLMENT FORM MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT, THURS., JULY 16, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

ONE out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow...next week...next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in our National Home plan that...

Pays you $600.00-a-month tax-free cash whenever you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have $600.00 cash coming in every month when you go to the hospital. You get your $600.00-a-month cash—tax-free—as long as you are confined in the hospital. You are covered from the very first day for accidents and from the fourth day for sickness—even for life, if necessary! Most everyone has some insurance or savings to take care of a one to three-day hospital stay. Since we provide lifetime benefits, this "deductible" feature enables us to give you the broadest possible coverage at the lowest possible cost.

Now, this low-cost plan from National Home enables you to enjoy this protection at once. Your introductory rate is just 25¢ for the first month's coverage for your entire family. Then, you may continue at National Home's regular low rates.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this $600.00-a-month plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Use the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage or rent payments, to replace savings—or any necessary, but costly, expenses not covered by other hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why National Home developed this low-cost plan that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses.

We can never cancel your policy!

You can count on this wonderful protection no matter how old you become or how many times you collect from us. Your policy guarantees that we can never cancel your protection for any reason whatsoever. It is Guaranteed Renewable for Life!

And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family—this policy (NH10-669EP)...

PAYS $600.00-A-MONTH CASH for each accident or illness. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the fourth day in the hospital.

PAYS $300.00-A-MONTH CASH for the first three months, when you're 65 or over. And a full $600.00-A-MONTH CASH thereafter—even for life. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the fourth day in the hospital.

PAYS $360.00-A-MONTH CASH if a covered child is hospitalized for injury or illness. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the fourth day in the hospital. And the benefits continue for as long as necessary.

PAYS $2,400.00-A-MONTH CASH when both husband and wife (under age 65) are hospitalized at the same time for accidental injury for as long as both remain in the hospital—even for life, if necessary.

PAYS $400.00-A-MONTH CASH for a Registered Nurse at home if your doctor has you hire one within five days following a covered hospital confinement of five days or more.

PAYS up to $2,000.00 CASH for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight*

65 OR OVER? YOU COLLECT IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE BENEFITS

We have designed this plan as a valuable addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with any other companies. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. In addition to any benefits you may receive from Medicare, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $300.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $600.00 monthly while hospitalized thereafter... even for life if necessary!

Pays you $360.00-a-month cash whenever any dependent child is hospitalized.

When you choose Coverage for Children, all your dependent, unmarried children from age one month through 18 years are covered, too! What's more, any newborn children you have in the future are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost to you. And whenever any of your children go to the hospital—for removal of tonsils or appendix, for any illness or injury—this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $360.00-a-month cash, for as long as necessary. Children are covered for accidents from the first day and for sickness from the fourth day.

Pays you tax-free cash Maternity Benefits, too.

With this plan, you can also collect cash at the rate of $600.00 a month for every day you are confined to the hospital for pregnancy, childbirth, or even miscarriage. You get this cash, which is yours to use as you see fit, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan. Of course, both parents must be enrolled in this plan for the entire period of pregnancy.

Pays you up to $4,800.00 cash for a Registered Nurse at Home.

Here's a wonderful "get well" benefit of this National Home plan: You collect cash benefits at the rate of $400.00 a month when your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within five days after you come home, following a stay in the hospital of five days or more for which benefits were payable. You are actually paid for every day you were in the hospital—even up to 12 full months!

Double Cash Accident Benefit.

When you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, this National Home plan pays you an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE CASH BENEFIT. You receive not $600.00 but $1,200.00 a month. That's $2,400.00 in all, in cash payments to you every month (when under age 65) starting the day you enter the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

Pays you up to $2,000.00 cash for these accidental losses...

The accidental loss of limbs or eyesight can be terrible. But if such loss occurs any time within 90 days of the accident, you collect $1,000.00 for the complete loss of a hand or a foot or the sight of an eye—and $2,000.00 for loss of two limbs or the sight of both eyes.

Waiver of premium benefit.

Should you—the policyowner—be hospitalized for 8 consecutive weeks or more, this National Home plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. And your protection continues just the same as if you were paying the premiums yourself. Then, if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, we will again pay any premiums while you are in the hospital—for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your National Home policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered.

Nationally known and respected.

This is the kind of outstanding protection you have read about in Reader's Digest, Parents, National Geographic and other leading publications. The special plans offered by the National Liberty Corporation group of companies are today helping policyowners in all 50 states—and many foreign countries—paying benefits at the rate of more than $1,500,000.00 a month. In addition, our Company has a RECOMMENDED rating from Best's Insurance Reports, one of the foremost insurance authorities in the nation.

Fast, reliable claim service when needed most.

You never really know how good a policy is until you have to make a claim. That's why we think you'll be interested in what some of our National Home members have to say. Their comments—quoted below—are typical of the hundreds of expressions of appreciation we receive from policyowners every week... "Received your check for $880.00. I appreciate having the money sent directly to me so I could decide how to use it."

NICHOLAS CRISTL, Green Bay, Wis.

"It was wonderful to receive your check for $555.00. I'm very pleased. It paid real well."

MRS. BESSIE GEISINGER, Kansas City, Mo.

"Everyone should have your coverage. I know I wouldn't be without it."

WALTER TUCKER, Fayetteville, N.C.

Outstanding Americans like these Recommend this Coverage.

DR. E. STANLEY JONES, internationally known evangelist, author, missionary statesman: "In offering low-cost health insurance by mail, you are rendering a valuable service to thousands of people who have no other opportunity to avail themselves of such protection. It's reassuring to know that policyowners insured by the National Liberty group are receiving more than $1,500,000.00 a month in benefits."

LT. GEN. W. K. HARRISON, U.S. Army (Retired): "People benefit in many ways when they purchase insurance direct by mail from National Home Life Assurance Company. They save money through lower rates. No salesman calls. And no medical examination is required. I consider it a sensible, economical way to increase one's health protection in these days of mounting hospital and medical costs."

JEROME HINES, leading bass with the Metropolitan Opera Company: "It seems to me that the concept of health insurance by mail is a very sensible one. It's quick, easy and economical. Nobody makes surprise visits to your home to ask personal questions. There's no medical examination. And costly processing charges are eliminated. This means more protection at less cost. I congratulate National Home Life Assurance Company for meeting a real need."

Why you must act before the date shown on your Enrollment Form—just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to enroll in this plan? Because this is a guaranteed enrollment offer, we can open the enrollment only during a limited time period—with a firm deadline date for everyone. To provide you with this broad coverage at these rates, we must receive your Enrollment Form during the same period as all the others.

As soon as we receive your Enrollment Form we will rush your policy to you by First Class Mail. When your policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. It is a very short document and you'll be pleasantly surprised to see there is no fine print. Show it, if you wish, to your doctor, lawyer, insurance agent, or some other trusted advisor.

Medical Costs Skyrocketing!

SOURCE: U.S. DEPT. OF LABOR, WASHINGTON, D.C. 1957-59-100

MEDICAL CARE COSTS rose in September, 1969, to 157.6% of the 1957-59 average from 156.8% a month earlier. These costs are components of the Government consumer price index.

HERE ARE YOUR LOW RATES.

The following rate chart shows how little it costs after the first month to cover yourself, your spouse and any adult dependents. Naturally, at these low rates, we can issue you only one policy of this type. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium per Adult
16-44	only $3.85
45-49	only $4.25
50-54	only $4.85
55-74	only $5.55
75-79	only $6.25
80-84	only $6.95
85 and over	only $8.35

Only $2.05 more per month covers all your dependent children...

from the age of one month through 18 years. Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost! And then if you wish, just add $1.35 monthly to that, and you're covered for Maternity Benefits, too!

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this National Home plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

Act NOW—"Later" May Be Too Late!

Just 25¢ covers you and your family for first month.

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.) Get your Enrollment Form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before anything unexpected happens.

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED ABOUT THIS NATIONAL HOME PLAN

1. How much will I be paid when I go to the hospital?

You will receive cash at the rate of $600.00 a month. When you're 65 or over, you collect (in addition to any Medicare benefits) $300.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $600.00 monthly while you remain continuously hospitalized thereafter. And you collect cash for an accident even if you're in the hospital for only one day. Coverage for illness begins the fourth day—and benefits are paid in full for as long as you're hospitalized... even for life, if necessary.

2. Do you pay me cash when my children go to the hospital?

You collect cash at the rate of $360.00 a month whenever any of your children (age 1 month through 18 years) go to the hospital—if Coverage for Children is added to the basic plan. Coverage for accidents begins on the first day—sickness on the fourth day. And if you have a growing family—as soon as any newborn child is one month old, he, too, is covered—automatically... at no additional cost.

3. Will you pay me cash benefits for pregnancy?

Yes, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan. You collect cash at the rate of $600.00 a month for pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay. (Both parents have to be enrolled in this plan for entire pregnancy period.)

4. Are there any other cash benefits I can collect?

There are! If you and your insured spouse are both in an accident and hospitalized at the same time, you receive this DOUBLE CASH BENEFIT: You collect at the rate of $1,200.00 a month and your spouse collects at the rate of $1,200.00 a month—you receive a total of $2,400.00-a-month tax-free cash (when under age 65) for as long as you both remain in the hospital. Then, too, if any accident results in the complete loss of limbs or eyesight—even as long as 90 days after the accident—you are paid up to $2,000.00 cash.

5. Suppose I'm hospitalized for a long time and can't meet my premium payments?

If you—the policyowner—are hospitalized for 8 consecutive weeks or more, this National Home plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. You aren't expected to pay us back, either.

6. What do I do when I have a claim?

Whether you have a claim, or just want to ask us a question, don't hesitate to contact us. As a National Home policyowner, you are entitled to prompt, courteous and direct attention at all times... and you will get it.

7. Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover?

Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers everything except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for only two years. Everything else is definitely covered.

8. Does this plan pay in any hospital?

You will be covered in any hospital of your choice except a U.S. Government hospital or a nursing or convalescent facility.

9. What are the requirements to enroll in this National Home plan?

You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health; and to qualify during this Enrollment Period—you must enroll before midnight of the date shown on the Enrollment Form.

10. Besides saving money—are there any other advantages to joining this plan during this Enrollment Period?

Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a lengthy, detailed application—just the brief Enrollment Form in the corner of this page. Also, during this Enrollment Period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!

11. How do I enroll?

Fill out the brief Enrollment Form and mail it with just 25¢ for the first month's protection for your entire family. Mail to: National Home, Valley Forge, Pa. 19481.

MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE

WASHINGTON REPORT

From
WILLIAM H. HARSHA
Representative To Congress
6th District, Ohio

WASHINGTON — "Liberals" blaming President Richard M. Nixon and the Republican administration for the present economic inflation problems are like arsonists who blame the fire chief for a fire they have set and then throw rocks at the firemen who are trying to put it out.

Inflation is no new thing in America, nor was it an accident. Prices have risen almost constantly since the end of World War II. Between 1945 and the present, the purchasing power of the dollar in retail markets has been cut almost in half. In case of many other items, its value has fallen even lower.

The reason for this inflationary trend is that the federal government has increased the money supply through deficit financing. During the decade of the 1960's alone, $57 billion was added in this way to the national debt which now totals $347.8 billion with a new debt ceiling or limit set at a phenomenal $395 billion. Annual interest alone on this amount is nearly $19 billion.

WHAT HAS happened is that deliberate economic policies of the years since World War II are now being translated directly into higher costs of food, housing, clothing, transportation, medical care, and all other necessities of life. It is the inevitable result of the tax, borrow, and spend philosophy based on the myth that it does no harm to run the government into the red.

It is true, in fact, that it may do no immediate harm to the executives who can vote themselves large pay increases to compensate for the inflation, or to the special interest groups to which lavish subsidies are often funneled. But it can and does do considerable harm to society in general, particularly that vast majority of Americans living on fixed incomes, and to the energetic, hard working producers — the yeomanry who are the real backbone of the nation.

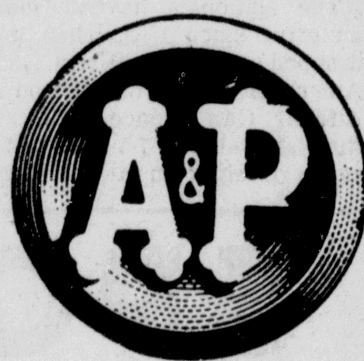

For example, the super welfare state, which has been growing constantly since New Deal times, discourages thrift, savings and self-reliance through excessive taxation. As it deprives the individual of his money and the power to decide how it will be spent, it expands on its own activities, extolling them as beneficial in countless ways.

For more than three decades with few exceptions, it has at the same time formed the hard pernicious habit of spending more than it takes in and borrowing to make up the difference, which necessitates even heavier taxation.

NOW the administration is being forced to accept the brunt of undue criticism about the economy, as if the administration caused it, from the same "liberals" who voted in the free-spending measures that have caused the present inflationary trends.

What must be done to reverse the present economic process is crystal clear. Government must control the super welfare state encroachment into national life. It must also reduce the size of its bureaucracies, lower taxes, balance budgets and begin to liquidate debts. We are also faced with the added complication of moving from a wartime to a peacetime economy. We must initiate affirmative action that will move the nation toward a genuine and balanced prosperity based on a peacetime economy and the price stability that keeps more dollars in the pockets of the American working man.

The administration has taken the necessary initiative in working to restore sound money values. But it will be no easy task to undo the gross mismanagement of the past three decades.

And, it will be completely impossible if, while the administration is patching up one part of the economy, legislators and bureaucrats are gnawing holes in the rest of it.

IN A memorandum from the President to the heads of executive departments and agencies dated May 25, 1970

Mr. Nixon noted that it was the responsibility of these governmental heads to "make the best possible use of every tax dollar." The President also stated: "We must exert at least as much — and sometimes even more — effort to save the taxpayers' money as we do to spend it."

The President has appointed a National Commission on Productivity which will search for ways to restore growth to productivity. Meanwhile, the Council of Economic Advisors have been directed to prepare periodic inflation reports calling attention to price or wage increases that will complicate economic stability.

Measures such as these will help to maintain sound money values, but the inflation problems also demand the utmost display of responsibility on the part of business, labor and government.

Our economy, even with its present imperfections, remains by far the strongest in the world, and our country remains the most prosperous in the

Cigarette Blamed For Fatal Blaze

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's deputies believe a discarded cigarette was the cause of a fire Saturday night that took the life of Mrs. Sylvia M. Goins, 42, Springfield Township, and destroyed her home.

The fire quickly engulfed the woman's four room frame residence. Would-be rescuers were unable to enter the building because of the flames and smoke. Mrs. Goins was alone at the time of the fire.

world. I am confident our economic system will endure and grow in the future, and I will lend my support to the legislation that will achieve a prosperity that can be shared by every American.

Stokes To Fight Housing Foes

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Mayor Carl B. Stokes says he will fight opponents of low-cost housing who support the projects when dedicated to the elderly but oppose them when built for blacks.

"Those families are black families, black boys and girls. People know that older black people have become conditioned to all of the evil aspects of our society and won't move to the (predominantly white) West Side because of the struggle. But a woman wants to take her children where they have a chance."

Post 25 Splits Doubleheader With Greenfield

Brown, Pendry Trade Mound Victories

By KIRK ARNOTT
Record-Herald Sports Writer
Post 25 Pennington-Wilson's American Legion baseball team found its position in the South Central Ohio League somewhat shakier after splitting a doubleheader Sunday afternoon with arch-rival Greenfield. Greenfield won the first game 5-2, but Post 25 rebounded for an 8-2 win in the nightcap.

Saturday, Post 25 dropped both ends of a doubleheader at Cincinnati Allied Appraisal to the Hamilton George Washington Junior High School diamond. The scores were 9-2 and 3-0.

Dave Pendry, former Sabina Babe Ruth League ace, limited Post 25 to six hits in pitching Greenfield to its win Sunday. He fanned five and walked none, and was helped by some baserunning blunders on the part of Post 25.

Steve Bowers pitched well for Post 25, but seemed to run into trouble after two were out in most innings. He fanned eight and walked six while allowing nine hits.

Mike Zint's two-run single sent Greenfield on its way in the second inning. Pendry blasted a double and a triple.

For Post 25, Bill Thomas doubled, Steve Bowers tripled and Marty Jones rapped two singles.

BRUCE BROWN fired a three-hitter as Post 25 bounced back to gain the second game. He struck out seven and walked three while hitting two batters. One of them Steve Smith, was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital when struck in the head.

Manager Russ Hatfield's Washington C. H. unit jumped on Greenfield's Mark Cox for three first-inning runs on two hits, three walks and an error.

Three more runs in the fourth frame made it 5-0 and just about wrapped it up.

Greenfield scored in the fifth and seventh frames, with Gregory's namer accounting for the first run.

Mike Mitchell smacked two singles to lead Post 25 in the second game. Brown and Steve Bowers had doubles.

Cox, Gregory and Flottman combined on the mound for Greenfield.

POST 25 started Saturday's twinbill with only nine players, and had no more than 11 for the two games. The first game saw Allied Appraisal plate three runs in the first inning on three singles and a double.

Harrison and O'Leary later homered for the winning best team.

Dave Acus was the winning pitcher, with four strikeouts and a pair of walks. He yielded only two hits both in the fifth inning.

Newkirk, Harrison and Trainor all belted three hits for the winners.

Randy Alkire was the losing pitcher, going all the way.

DENNY MEIER, a lefthander, lost his no-hitter in the sixth inning when Ty Ankrum singled, but he held on for a two-hit shutout. Fanning seven and walking two, Meier pitched the Cincinnatians to completion of the sweep.

Steve Bihl hurried for the losers, going the route.

Mike Webb smacked four singles to lead Allied at the plate, and Meier added two singles himself.

Allan Huffman robbed one batter of a homer when he caught a long drive just before falling backward into the dense foliage in right field.

Now 19-14 for the season and 8-3 in the league, Post 25 hosts Waverly Wednesday at 6 p.m.

Jack Nicklaus Takes British Open Victory

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — "Let's give Jack full credit," said a disappointed Doug Sanders after losing the prestigious British Open Golf Championship by one stroke to Jack Nicklaus.

Nicklaus, the game's Golden Bear, countered after Sunday's 18-hole playoff: "How lucky can you get? I never expected to be here now. Doug had it all wrapped up on the final hole Saturday. Then he missed that short putt."

Just as the 18th was the crucial hole Saturday at the end of the regulation 72 holes, so it was again Sunday.

Sanders missed a four-foot putt on the 18th green of historic St. Andrews' Old Course, birthplace of the game, on Saturday, forcing Sunday's 18-hole playoff. Dapper Doug, in a prolonged victory drought, canned a three-footer at 18 Sunday for a birdie.

But it was for naught. Big Jack canned a seven-footer, also for a birdie, and it gave him a one-shot victory and his second British Open championship.

Here's how Sanders, the 36-year-old Georgia native with the faded short backswing, described it:

"I'm in a good position on the 18th. Jack is at the back of the green and in what could be tough grass.

"So, I'm thinking if I get a birdie and he gets a five then I'm the champion. But Jack, being the champion he is, chipped out and got the birdie."

The 30-year-old Nicklaus, describing his winning putt, said: "I almost hit it before I was ready. I told myself to wait for a second and make it right."

MT Boosters Meet Tuesday Evening

There will be a meeting of the Miami Trace Boosters Club Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Miami Trace High School, announces president Marvin Waddle.

Waddle urged that all directors of the organization attend, as the program for the coming year will be decided upon.

Deane Beman Is Winner At Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A confident Deane Beman withdrew from the British Open to play at Milwaukee because of the warm weather and a chance to get in more practice.

"I was happy about my decision before," he said Sunday, after winning the $110,000 Greater Milwaukee Open golf tournament. "Now I'm elated."

The 32-year-old Beman fired a 12-under-par 276 to capture the $22,000 first place check.

Three strokes back were Don Massendale, Dick Crawford and Ted Hayes, all tied at 279.

"I had an exemption and had planned to play in the British Open," Beman said. "But my performance has been mediocre lately and I thought the weather in Milwaukee would be warmer and I could get in more practice."

Hulme Drives McLaren Car To Win At Watkins Glen

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (AP) — The British-based team McLaren is to the rich Canadian-American auto road racing series what the New York Yankees used to be to baseball.

"If any car-driver combination ever beats them, it will provide the biggest upheaval in recent motorsports history," a 20-year observer of the sport commented Sunday.

New Zealand driver Denis Hulme had just driven one of the bright orange McLaren-Chevrolets to victory in the third Can-Am of the season a 200-mile over the 2.3-mile Grand Prix circuit at Watkins Glen.

It was the 16th straight win for the McLarens and their 22nd in 25 starts in the million dollar series over a three-year period.

Furthermore, Hulme made it look even easier than in most of the previous races. He got the jump at the start and never was threatened as he drove routinely to his first victory of the season.

New teammate Dan Gurney of Santa Ana, Calif., had won the other two starts beginning with the season opener June 14.

Expos Turn Back Mets, 5-3

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Claude Raymond had a chance to be heard instead of seen this season. The New York Mets wish he had taken it, but the Montreal Expos are glad he's saving his voice among other things.

The other things are victories — and Sunday Raymond saved the Expos' 5-3 triumph over the New York Mets.

It was the third straight save — one in each of the victories over the Mets — and his 17th of the season for Raymond, who turned down a chance to retire and do the French language broadcasts for the Expos this year.

New York's loss left the Mets 1½ games behind first-place Pittsburgh in the National League East. The Pirates beat St. Louis 7-6 in 10 innings but lost pitcher Steve Blass with a cracked pitching elbow on the eve of the annual All-Star Game break.

Houston edged San Francisco 8-7, Cincinnati nipped Atlanta 6-5, San Diego took Los Angeles 4-1 and the Chicago Cubs trounced Philadelphia 10-2.

The 33-year-old Raymond, in his 12th major league season, said that some Montreal writers in spring training thought he was finished and was being kept only because he's French-Canadian.

"That really hurt me," the relief ace said Sunday. "I worked a little harder and I've been having the best year I ever had."

The veteran right-hander's 3-5 record is overshadowed by his 17 saves. The rest of the Montreal staff has a total of two saves.

Bob Bailey, who has 19 hits in his last 38 at-bats, tied it for the Expos at 3-3 with his 11th homer in the eighth and Montreal won it when Ray Sadecki committed a two-out error in the ninth and then wild pitched the tie-breaking run home.

Al Oliver's leadoff homer in the 10th and RBI singles by John Jeter and Matty Alou gave reliever Dave Giusti a 7-0 record and the Pirates' their 17th victory in 21 games and a four-game sweep of St. Louis, which has cost seven in a row.

Blass was hit by a liner from the bat of Joe Torre in the second inning, and the right-hander is expected to be out for three weeks.

Jim Wynn, Bob Watson and Doug Rader delivered ninth-inning, RBI singles to lift Houston over San Francisco, which had taken a 7-5 lead with five runs in the eighth and one in the ninth. Two San Francisco hits were singles by Willie Mays, who needs only two more hits to reach the 3,000 mark.

Top Batters Set For All-Star Tilt

CINCINNATI (AP) — A battery of National League's biggest guns, led by hometown howitzers Tony Perez and Johnny Bench, should put American League pitching and the fences of Riverfront Stadium to a severe test in Tuesday night's 41st All-Star Game.

National League Manager Gil Hodges and American League skipper Earl Weaver were to announce their batting orders for the mid-season classic today, and it was anticipated that right-handers, Tom Seaver, 14-5, of Hodges' New York Mets and Jim Palmer, 12-6, of Weaver's Baltimore Orioles would be named the opposing starting pitchers.

The other NL starters are first baseman Richie Allen of St. Louis, second baseman Glenn Beckert and shortstop Don Kessinger of the Chicago Cubs, third baseman Perez and catcher Bench of Cincinnati and outfielders Hank Aaron and Rico Carty of Atlanta and Willie Mays of San Francisco.

Starting for the AL will be first baseman Boog Powell and second baseman Dave Johnson of Baltimore, shortstop Luis Aparicio of the Chicago White Sox, third baseman Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota, catcher Bill Freehan of Detroit and outfielders Carl Yastrzemski of Boston, Frank Howard of Washington and Frank Robinson of the Orioles.

The pitchers, who dominated All-Star play for three consecutive years until Willie McCovey and Bench powered the Nationals to a 9-3 romp at Washington last July in a game which produced five home runs, will have their work cut out for them again this time.

Each of the starting lineups is six-deep in long ball hitters, with the Nationals showing a 151-133 advantage in homers to date this season.

Perez and Bench are 1-2 in the majors with 29 and 28 homers, respectively. Allen, with 25, Aaron, 24, Carty, 23, and Mays, 19, complete the NL six.

Mays, a .343 hitter in 20 previous showings whose 67 at-bats 20 runs scored and 23 hits are records for the classic, has hit three All-Star homers.

Perez, Bench and Allen have socked one apiece. Aaron has failed to connect in 18 previous games. Carty will be making his first All-Star appearance.

Killebrew has smacked 26 American League homers this season, two more than Howard. Powell has 23, Yastrzemski 21, Frank Robinson 17 and Freehan 13. Killebrew has hit two in All-Star competition, Howard, Robinson and Freehan one each.

Feeling perhaps a little out of place alongside all the big swingers will be Johnson, with six homers, Aparicio, with three, Beckert, with two, and Kessinger, with just one this year.

But they might note that the first Cincinnati player to unload a homer in Riverfront Stadium, a symmetrical park with 330-foot distances down each foul line and a 404-foot line to straightaway center field, was neither Perez, nor Bench, nor any of the Reds' other thumpers. Little Tommy Helms did the honors, and it was his first homer since the first week of the 1969 season.

While pitchers on both sides try to keep the ball in the park Tuesday night, the National Leaguers will be putting a perfect seven-year defensive record on the line . . . and on the lighting-fast artificial turf that blankets the Reds' new park.

The Nationals haven't made an error since 1962, when they dropped a 9-4 decision. The American League hasn't won an All-Star Game since then, and the Nationals are 7-5 favorites to make it eight in a row.

The National League leads the series 22-17, with one game ending in a tie.

A crowd of over 51,000 is expected for the 8:15 p.m., EDT game, to be televised nationally by NBC.

Sunday, Hodges named Joe Morgan of Houston to replace Atlanta's Felix Millan as a backup second baseman on the NL squad. Millan was forced to bow out after suffering bruised fingers on his right hand in a recent game.

Anderson's Rampaging Reds Hold 10-Game Bulge In NL

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Sports Writer

ATLANTA (AP) — "If we play .600 ball the rest of the way, it's impossible for anyone to catch us," said Sparky Anderson, a first-year manager who has sent his Big Red Machine at Cincinnati to a 10-game bulge in the National League West at the All-Star Game break.

"I feel we'll play .600 ball," he said. "But .700 ball is an unheard of thing. That's fantastic."

And, that's just what the Reds have been over the first half of the season, a fantastic club with 62 victories and 26 defeats, a lofty .705 percentage.

The Reds rolled to their third straight victory over Atlanta Sunday 6-5 when Lee May, suffering from stomach cramps in the humid 90-degree heat, belted a two-run homer in the eighth inning, his 20th of the year.

May, a husky 205-pounder, lost 20 pounds during the four-game set with the Braves and left the game after hitting his game winning blow.

But Anderson wasn't around to watch it. He had been ejected by umpire Ken Burkhardt earlier in the game, complaining that Atlanta catcher Hal King failed to tag May with the ball during a rundown between third and home in the fourth inning.

"He had the ball cocked to throw to second when he touched May with the mitt," said Anderson.

"But I don't blame Burkhardt. That's the kind of bam-bam play that's hard to catch. He was right in throwing me out. He is in control of the game."

Burkhardt became the target of verbal abuse later in the game when several Reds argued that Atlanta starter Jim Nash was throwing spitballs.

"I told the umpire he struck me out on a spit ball," said Pete Rose. "I don't think I know it was one."

"Later I went back and told Burkhardt Tony Perez fanned on a splitter. I told him Perez was a .370 hitter and he ought to know."

"He threw me about three spitballs," said Perez.

"I don't know whether he wets 'em," said Anderson, "but he goes to his forehead an awful lot."

Tribe Loses 8-2, 6-2 Against Red Sox

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tony Conigliaro and Billy Conigliaro both hit Fred Lasher Sunday and it was debatable which of the brothers made the Cleveland pitcher feel worse.

Tony C. charged Lasher after being struck on the left arm by a pitch in the first inning of Sunday's nightcap. He kicked Lasher in the hip—the hurler got a tetanus shot for a small spike wound—and punched him in the nose before being thrown out of the game.

Unfortunately for Lasher, umpire Hank Soar let him stick around and Billy C. hit a home run in the second inning that started the Boston Red Sox to an 8-2 victory. They also won the opener 6-2.

"I couldn't think of anything else but to go and get him," said Tony C., who was nearly blinded when struck in the face by a pitch from California's

Jack Hamilton in August 1967 and didn't return to action until last season. "There was nothing else I could do."

Sunday's outburst was an aftermath of a July 4 game in which Lasher knocked Conigliaro down with a pitch and then was quoted as saying, "Tell Tony C. he better be a little careful the next time he faces me because he just may get a little jammed."

"He surprised me twice," Lasher said Sunday. "First, Tony surprised me when he came out to the mound. So I got ready for him. But then he surprised me with that kick. Before I could do anything, Carl Yastrzemski grabbed me and pinned my arms to my side."

Soar absolved Lasher of deliberately throwing at Conigliaro.

"The pitch was inside, but it wasn't thrown at Tony," the umpire said.

Tom Satriano and John Kennedy also homered for the Red Sox in the nightcap while Tony C. and Rico Petreoli connected in the first game. Duke Sims, Tony Horton and Ted Uhlaender cracked home runs for the Indians, who fell into last place in the American League East when Washington beat the New York Yankees 7-3.

Elsewhere in the AL, Baltimore whipped Detroit 13-3 after the Tigers took the opener 7-3. California downed Minnesota 2-0, Oakland edged Milwaukee 4-3 but lost the second game 2-1 and the Chicago White Sox battered Kansas City 10-5.

Mickey Stanley, Bill Freehan and Al Kaline belted Detroit homers as the Tigers rocked Dave McNally for seven runs in the first three innings of their opening game. But the Orioles walked three homers of their own — by Boog Powell, Ellie Hendricks and Merv Rettenmund — and shelled Denny McLain, 0-2, and two relievers for seven runs in the sixth inning of the nightcap to maintain their six-game bulge over the Tigers in the AL East.

The Yankees fell seven games behind Baltimore when Washington rocked Mel Stottlemyere for five runs in the first two innings and breezed behind Jim Hannan. Del Unser stroked a bases-loaded single as the Senators scored four times in the first inning and Paul Casanova homered in the fifth. Ron Hansen homered for New York.

Minnesota grabbed a 2-0 lead over the Angels on Harmon Killebrew's first-inning homer, his 26th. But California shelled Jim Perry for four runs in the fourth on Roger Repoz' triple, Jim Fregosi's single, a walk, Jim Spencer's single and Ken Mullen's two-run double. The Angels added two more in the fifth on a walk, Fregosi's triple and a single by Alex Johnson and pulled within five games of the Twins in the AL West.

Don Mincher's second homer of the game tied the score in the ninth inning and Oakland edged Milwaukee in their opener when pinch hitter John Donaldson singled home the winning run. Gerry McNertney and Dave May homered for the Brewers.

After owner Charles O. Finley gave manager John McNamara a vote of confidence in an unusual between-games news conference, the A's promptly lost the nightcap to Lew Krausse's six-hitter. Tommy Harper homered for the Brewers, Bert Campaneris for Oakland.

Luis Aparicio doubled home the go-ahead run in the seventh and Ken Berry socked a three-run double in the ninth as the White Sox outslugged the Royals despite a three-run homer by the losers' Bob Oliver.

Unionettes Dump Chillicothe, 5-1

It took only 40 minutes for the Jones Unionettes to defeat Chillicothe Women 5-1 at Eymann Park Sunday and clinch the first round championship in Washington C. H. Women's Softball League action.

The quick game was tied at 1-1 for five innings, but Faith Baker's triple in the sixth snapped the deadlock and sent the Washington C. H. team on its way.

L. Zarce, S. Hurler, M. Greer, J. Grim and P. Robinson had the other hits for the Unionettes and Zarce was the winning pitcher. She allowed only three Chillicothe hits. Shewalter was the loser, giving up seven hits.

Teens, Women's Club Join Fight On Water Pollution

By SAM FITZSIMMONS
Van Wert Times-Bulletin
VAN WERT, Ohio (AP) — Junior and senior high school students here have set aside the generation gap and joined forces with a local woman's club to fight water pollution.

The project began shaping up last spring when a teacher told students concerned about pollution that Van Wert's Town Creek would be a good place to put their concern to work.

The stream, which meanders through downtown Van Wert, has been an eyesore for years, especially in the summer when low water reveals scum-covered debris tossed aside by town residents.

The teacher's suggestion prompted one student to write a letter to the editor of the local newspaper volunteering to help with a cleanup drive if a civic club would sponsor it. The Van Wert Woman's Club took up the challenge.

Using city trucks to haul away the debris, and gloves and cutting equipment donated by local businesses, the students began the job when school ended for the summer.

They cleaned about 50 yards of creek bed the first day and uncovered an assortment of prizes, including bird cages, automobile tires, a toilet bowl and several antique pop bottles.

One student wading through the muck came up with an unopened bottle of beer with the message "Fight Litter" on the cap.

The biggest surprise was discovery of a silt-covered portion of an iron statue and fountain imbedded in the mud near the park where it once stood.

The fountain was a gift to the town in the 1890s but was torn down after it was allowed to fall into disrepair.

About three dozen students took part in the project, which cleaned a four-block section of the creek in less than two weeks.

West Virginia Coal Mines Shut Down

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
At least 11 West Virginia soft coal mines were shut down today as a result of picket lines set up by a dissident pensioners group in defiance of a federal court restraining order.

The United Mine Workers Union asked its members to ignore the picket lines and report to work, but about 3,000 failed to enter shafts in Wyoming County in the southern part of the state.

The picketing pensioners seek reform of the union's pension fund, expanded hospital care for disabled miners and widows, and a general liberalization of benefits.

The work stoppage came as 85 per cent of the nation's coal miners were due back from their annual two-week vacations. Utility firms had hoped for quick replenishment of coal stocks for electrical production during the peak summer demand caused in part by the operation of air conditioners.

Wyoming County was one of three target areas selected by the Disabled Coal Miners of Southern West Virginia in its efforts to halt production in the five-state Appalachian coal fields.

Robert Payne of Itmann, W. Va., president of the group, told some 75 sympathetic miners at a meeting in Mullens, W. Va., Sunday night that pickets were being dispatched into Wyoming, Raleigh and McDowell counties.

Partition Belfast To Stop Fighting

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — British troops partitioned Belfast today in an effort to prevent Catholic-Protestant fighting during the Orangemen's annual Battle of the Boyne parades.

More than 20,000 members of the Orange Order were scheduled to parade through Belfast with 200 bands playing Protestant marching songs. It was one of 19 marches in towns and cities of Northern Ireland commemorating the 1690 victory of the Protestants over the Catholics.

Last year, the parades touched off weeks of religious warfare, and tension has been rising since the imprisonment of Catholic leader Bernadette Devlin two weeks ago.

Carrie Nation, famous American anti-saloon crusader, was "The Lady with the Hatchet."

Alphonse Bertillon, a French criminologist, devised a system of identification based upon body measurements.

'Toot-For-Trash' System To Be Used In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A "toot-for-trash, do-it-yourself" collection program gets underway here today as the city tries to reduce the amount of perishable garbage piling up in the city during the garbage collectors' sick call.

And striking Cleveland Transit System drivers say they won't return to work for less than $1 an hour. A spokesman for some dissident drivers said they might resume talks, deadlocked since Thursday, if CTS officials offer another 10 cents an hour.

Garbage truck drivers have not participated in the sick call by the 1,300 collectors and they will be ordered into the streets with their trucks today, city officials said.

The drivers are to toot their horns to let residents know they are on the street and the residents are to carry their perishable garbage to the trucks. Non-burnables, brush and papers are to be held until normal collection resumes, said Robert Beasley, commissioner of waste collection and disposal.

Service Director Ralph C. Tyler said emergency service will be "very slow. We won't be able to cover a route in a single day. We're going to fall behind. About all we can do is try to keep the garbage from piling up too much."

City officials and James Trusso, secretary-treasurer and business agent for Teamsters

Local 244 which represents the drivers, agreed that the action is not a strike-breaking move. Trusso added that "there is no strike" and therefore the drivers will not violate inter-union solidarity.

James D. Gloeckner, one of the 1,900 dissident CTS drivers, said in a television talk show in Cleveland Sunday that: "I don't believe the drivers I've been talking to will go back for less than 50 cents the first year and 50 cents the second year of a two-year contract."

But he did concede that strikers might return to the bargaining table if CTS offered "10 cents more an hour the first year...."

Ohio Highway Death Toll Drops To 11 For Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Only 11 people died in Ohio traffic accidents over the weekend, for the lowest toll in nearly three months.

Highway fatalities have been averaging 17 per weekend this year, and the last time the toll fell below a dozen was the weekend of April 17-19, when five deaths were recorded to match a five-year low.

This weekend's totals included double-death smashups in Cleveland and Trumbull and Columbiana counties.

The dead:

FRIDAY NIGHT
WARREN—William C. Shriver II, 20, Baltimore, Md., and Arthur Herron, 20, Hudson, when their car bounced off a stop sign and into a school building in northeastern Trumbull County.

SATURDAY
ST. CLAIRSVILLE—Linda A. Bechtel, 31, Bellaire, when her auto crashed off Ohio 147 near Belmont in Belmont County.

CLEVELAND—Betty Cresong, 31, Cleveland, when her car smacked a fire hydrant in Cleveland.

WARREN—Gary Blaney, 21, injured fatally on Ohio 7 near his home in Hartford in eastern Trumbull County.

CAMBRIDGE—Karen Butts, 6, Marietta, when a truck slammed into a camper in Seneca-ville in Guernsey County.

SUNDAY
DAYTON—Rodney C. Lovely, 18, West Carrollton, in one-car accident in Montgomery County.

CLEVELAND—Julie Felder, 6, and Edward Banks, 43, both of Cleveland, when the Banks car went off a Cleveland street and crashed into a building, pinning the child against a wall.

SALEM—John T. Garynor, 78, and wife Marie, 70, on Rock Creek, Ashtabula County, in a two-car collision on a Columbiana County road southwest of Salem.

County GOP Chairmen Eye Party Trouble

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The problem of how to handle two candidates repudiated by the Ohio Republican Executive Committee will be a major topic of discussion when the GOP chairmen of the state's 12 largest counties meet later this month.

State Chairman John S. Andrews said he will schedule the meeting either the week of July 20 or July 27.

Andrews said the meeting was not being called specifically to discuss the party's disinheritance of State Treasurer John D. Herbert, candidate for attorney general, and Sen. Robin T. Turner, state treasurer nominee.

But several county GOP leaders have expressed a desire for a joint decision on how to treat the two candidates. Some want to allow the two to appear at local party functions while others would prohibit it.

The Cuyahoga County party organization recently recommended that other candidates be run in the two races, either as write-ins or independents.

Herbert and Turner were repudiated for accepting campaign contributions from Crofters, Inc., the firm which arranged questionable loans from the state treasury.

The meeting later this month will be attended by party chairmen in Hamilton, Lucas, Summit, Montgomery, Stark, Mahoning, Lorain, Lake, Trumbull, Butler, Franklin and Cuyahoga counties.

A meeting of all 88 county GOP chairmen is planned in mid-August.

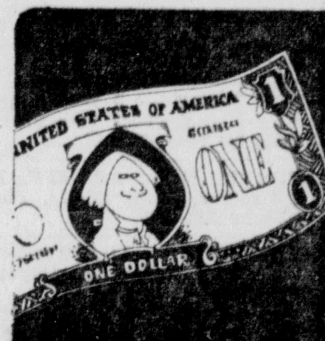

In Roman times, the Appian Way was a famous highway that connected Rome and Brundisium, on the east coast of Italy.

In 1949, we sold 2 Volkswagens in the U.S.A.

In 1969, things got a little better. All told, there are 3½ million good old VWs zipping around the good old U.S.A.

It is far and away the biggest automotive success story of all time.

It is also the simplest: The VW keeps getting better. And keeps selling better.

But simple doesn't mean easy. For 20 years, VW has improved its improvements and refined its refinements.

And we've made VW service as good as the car itself.

Today, we ask $1839* for a car that asks almost nothing of you: A dribble of gas and oil, no water or anti-freeze.

In return, Volkswagens cheerfully conquer mountains, skim deserts, float through floods, trudge through winters.

People pamper them, abuse them, depend on them and just plain love them.

For 20 years VW has raised the eyebrows and troubled the sleep of every other car maker in the world.

The years have been kind to us and you have been kind to us. And we thank you.

Gale Braden Named County Horse Queen

Gale Braden was chosen as the 1970 Fayette County 4-H Queen at a horse show near Good Hope Sunday.

Miss Braden, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Braden, near Good Hope, will be a senior in Miami Trace high school this fall.

Joyce Williams, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams,

GALE BRADEN

523 Fourth St., was named the runner-up.

They were chosen from among five candidates in a two-part competition. On July 1, they were rated for poise, personality and appearance and on Sunday they were rated for their horsemanship. The girls wore colorful Western regalia for both appearances.

Queen Gale rode her chestnut Quarter Horse gelding at the show Sunday for the judge, Roger Walker, of Lees Creek.

The selections of the queen and runner-up were made on the basis of the composite score of the first and second parts of the competition.

With 350 paid admission to the show, it was estimated that a crowd of well over 500, including participants, saw the queen candidates perform.

While the show included classes for both adults and young people, it was the queen competition and classes for the youngsters that attracted most of the attention. Classes for the children averaged 25 each — one had 42 horses and their youthful riders in the ring.

Queen Gale faces some busy days during the Fair the last week of this month, but her principal responsibility will be to present the trophies and ribbons at the 4-H Horse and Pony Show starting at 10 a.m.

New Landfill Site Studied

Ohio Health Aides Confer Here Monday

Consideration of a new site for the sanitary landfill project occupied the Board of County Commissioners Monday morning.

Two representatives of the Ohio Department of Health met with commissioners to consider the proposed sites. The state representatives will be touring the three proposed area with Charles Funk, county sanitarian, Monday.

The men will be checking the drainage, type of soil and a trench plan for the sites.

The landfill operation can continue at its present location for only about one month.

Most of the land at the site, south of Jeffersonville on Ohio 41, has been used.

The commissioners briefly discussed steps that can be taken to exclude out-of-county haulers from using the landfill project for dump refuse.

Bainbridge Man On Probation After Trailer Break-In

A Bainbridge area man charged with breaking and entering a house trailer owned by James Morris, Jamison Rd., was placed on three-year probation Tuesday in Fayette County Common Pleas Court.

Gary Keaton, 20, Rt. 2, Bainbridge, had been charged with entering the trailer June 26. No charge of theft was filed.

County Prosecutor Rollo M. Marchant reduced the original charge of entering an inhabited dwelling to entering an uninhabited one. Keaton waived his right to a grand jury investigation and entered a plea of guilty to the reduced charge.

All items allegedly stolen at the time of the breaking and entering have been recovered, according to Sheriff Don Thompson. The Sheriff's Department is still looking for another Bainbridge man believed to have been involved in the incident.

Judge Evelyn W. Coffman presided over the hearing in her chambers.

Camp Fire Girls Have Great Fun At 3 Day-Camps

It may have been a bit trying at times for the 62 mothers, more accustomed to housekeeping with modern conveniences than to more primitive outdoor living, but for the 257 Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, Junior High Camp Fire Girls and members of Horizon Clubs the three day-camp sessions at Camp Murdock were great fun.

The three sessions of five days each were held June 15-19, June 22-26 and June 29 - July 3. Camp Murdock is in a rolling area east of South Salem, about 20 miles south of Washington C. H.

The girls went to camp the first four days at 8:30 a.m. and returned at 4:30 p.m. but stayed overnight in tents the last day.

Transportation was provided by the First Baptist Church Scout troop bus, mini bus and private cars of parents and leaders. The Moose Lodge furnished the gasoline and oil for the Scout bus and Mrs. Charles Wright was the driver.

The girls kept busy with craft work, fishing, hiking and learning camping skills. The younger girls took sack lunches for their noon meals, but on the final day cooked their own suppers at camp.

The menu ranged from hotdogs - on - a - stick to beans in-a-hole for the advanced Camp Fire Girls.

Many parents went to the camp the evening of the next-to-last day to see the skits presented by the girls and the awarding of honors and to join in the singing. A surprise display of fireworks marked the first day; the fireworks were provided by one of the parents.

Two major improvements were made at Camp Murdock during the past year — the parking area was enlarged and the new Wa-Ko-Pe lodge (Wa-Ko-Pe is the Indian name for Paint Valley). The lodge was converted from a barn on the property through the cooperation of the local Armo Founders Day project.

Camp Murdock is supported by the $3.50 fee paid by the campers, the Council's annual candy sale and the Community Chest. Many hours of toil are contributed by the camp committees, the leaders, the Dads (fathers of the girls) and other interested adults.

Mrs. Rollo M. Marchant was the camp director for the first two sessions and Mrs. Frank Sanderson for the third.

For the first session, Mrs. Sanderson was the assistant director; Mrs. Byers W. Shaw, the nurse and the counselors were Mrs. Ronald Kelley, Mrs. Mel Weiland, Mrs. Gerald Wheat, Mrs. Walter Seifried, Mrs. Gayle McConkey, Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. Charles Wright, Mrs. Larry Johnson, Mrs. Paul Cox, Mrs. Gene Sagar, Mrs. Gary Thomson, Mrs. John Foltz, Mrs. Eugene Melson, Mrs. James Shoemaker, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. Dick Anthony, Mrs. Carroll Storts, Mrs. William Whaley Jr., Mrs. June Cartwright, Miss Iris Keplinger and Miss Toneatte Keplinger.

For the second session, Mrs. Wright was the assistant director and Mrs. Lawrence DaRif and Mrs. Robert Anderson, the camp nurses. The counselors were Mrs. James Rogers, Mrs. Richard Borreson, Mrs. James Hamilton, Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. Frank Sanderson, Mrs. Ted Kline, Mrs. Ted Osterlie, Mrs. Lee Lynch, Mrs. Richard English, Mrs. Darrel Mickle, Mrs. Edwin Rumer, Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. George McNew, Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. James Irons;

Six Hurt, Two Cited In Weekend Crashes

Six people suffered injuries in four weekend traffic accidents investigated in the city-county area which caused damage estimated at more than $1,500. Two drivers were cited, including a Fayette County man arrested on three charges by sheriff's deputies.

Howard Trimble, 21, Rt. 4, Washington C. H., who lost control of a 1964 model car on the curve at New Martinsburg Road on Ohio 41-S at 2:20 a.m. Monday, faces citations for reckless operation, driving while his license was under revocation and operating a car without the owner's consent.

Sheriff's deputies said the car Trimble was driving southbound failed to negotiate the sharp left-hand curve. It went off the right berm for 411 feet before overturning. Deputies listed the car's owner as Wilmer Bryan, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville. It was demolished.

Trimble complained of a shoulder injury. Two passengers, also injured, were Herman Payton, Bell Ave., lacerated lip, and Dale L. Sharpe, minor laceration. All three were treated at Fayette Memorial Hospital.

A PORTSMOUTH couple suffered severe lacerations in a two-car collision at 5 p.m. Sunday on U. S. 35 at Interstate 71. Treated at Fayette Memorial Hospital were Robert L. Witchard, 64, and his wife, Lue, 50. Three passengers and the driver in the other car escaped injury.

Sheriff's deputies said a 1967 model car operated by Mary J. Anthony, 60, of Columbus, was stopped on the crossover in the divided highway when Witchard's 1963 model attempted to turn into the same crossover.

His car skidded around a third vehicle, struck the Anthony car in the left side and continued off the highway and into a ditch. Damage to the Anthony car was listed at $100 and $300 to Witchard's. Witchard was charged with failure to stop within an assured clear distance.

An 8-year-old boy, Roger Byrd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Byrd, 1026 E. Temple St., collided with a car on Third Street while riding his bicycle at 8:45 p.m. Saturday.

City police reported that Dale E. Everhart, Jr., 21, of 512 Third St., pulled his car into an alley and was attempting to back out when the boy's cycle struck the car in the left rear fender. He suffered abrasions of the right arm, which were treated at Memorial Hospital. Damage to the car was estimated at $30.

Damage to a semi tractor and trailer was estimated at $300 after it was reportedly forced off U. S. 35 at Creek Road at 2:10 a.m. Monday.

Sheriff's deputies said the driver, Earl K. McNemar, 22, of Chillicothe, reported that he drove his rig off the highway in order to avoid a pair of side-by-side cars approaching his southbound truck. It struck and damaged 36 feet of guardrail, investigating officers said.
